Part III - Additional Information

Pt 1, Line 1A - First class travel - The Chairman of the Board of Directors and spouse are authorized for first class travel. The Chairman of the American Gas Association serves on a voluntary basis and contributes a significant amount of time traveling in carrying out those duties. It is therefore appropriate during the Chairman's tenure that the Association reimburse the Chairman and/or the Chairman's company for expenses incurred in the conduct of the Chairman's duties and in accordance with AGA's travel policy. The President & CEO is eligible for business class travel expenses on flights scheduled for more than 2 1/2 hours. If business class travel is not offered for a specific flight, first class travel expenses may be reimbursed.

Travel for Companions - The Association recognizes that there will be occasions when it is appropriate for a spouse of an employee to travel on behalf of the Association. In these cases approval for the travel must be received in advance. AGA considers expenses of a traveling spouse to be taxable income to the employee. Expenses are added to the employee's W-2 wages in accordance with the law and appropriate taxes are withheld.

Approved by the AGA Board on 9/15/09.

The American Gas Association represents companies delivering natural gas to customers to help meet their energy needs. AGA members are committed to delivering natural gas safely, reliably, cost-effectively and in an environmentally responsible way. AGA advocates the interests of its members and their customers, and provides information and services promoting efficient demand and supply growth, and operational excellence, in the safe, reliable and efficient delivery of natural gas.

To further this mission, AGA:

Focuses on the advocacy of natural gas issues that are priorities for the membership and that are achievable in a cost effective way.

Promotes growth in the efficient use of natural gas on behalf of natural gas utilities, and the customers the industry serves, by emphasizing before a variety of audiences the attributes of natural gas as a clean, abundant, efficient and secure energy source that is recognized as part of the solution to the nation's environmental and energy efficiency goals.

Encourages, facilitates, and assists members in sharing information designed to achieve operational excellence by improving their safety, security, reliability, efficiency, and environmental and other performance metrics; Assists members in managing and responding to customer energy needs, regulatory trends, natural gas markets, capital markets and emerging technologies; facilitates the identification of, and advocates for, regulatory constructs and business models that provide members the opportunity to remain financially viable, while allowing them to grow. Collects, analyzes and disseminates information on a timely basis to opinion leaders, policy makers and the public about the benefits provided by energy utilities and the natural gas industry.

Encourages the identification, development, demonstration and regulatory acceptance of end-use technologies that will allow energy efficient natural gas applications to successfully enter the market place.

Delivers measurable value to AGA members.

Form 990, Part III, Line 2 - New Services

The International Conference and Exhibition on Liquefied Natural Gas is held every three years under the auspices of the International Gas Union (IGU), the Gas Technology Institute (GTI) and the International Institute of Refrigeration (IIR). The conference is widely viewed as the largest and most prestigious of LNG conferences. AGA is a member of the IGU, many of its members operate LNG facilities in their natural gas distribution operations, and LNG is a critical factor in ensuring natural gas supply. The American Gas Association chaired the National Organizing Committee (NOC) for the 17th International Conference & Exhibition on Liquefied Natural Gas (LNG 17), held in Houston, Texas, April 16-19, 2013. The NOC is responsible for the venue selection, management of the vendors related to the exhibition, the meeting planning, and registration and associated functions, and is responsible for the financing of the event. About 13,000 individuals from 80 countries attended LNG 17 in some capacity, as a conference delegate or as a visitor to the 250,000 square foot exhibition. Revenue collected and expenses incurred were recognized in 2013. Revenue collected and expenses incurred prior to 2013 were classified as Prepaid LNG 17 expenses and Deferred LNG 17 conference and exhibition revenue on the consolidated statements of financial position.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service AccomplishmentsPUBLIC AFFAIRS.

AGA has in place a Public Affairs program to monitor federal legislative activities and to discuss with members of Congress and their staff the views of AGA members on these activities. AGA's government relations efforts play a key role in protecting the interests of the natural gas utility and its customers from proposed legislation that inadvertently or otherwise could have serious impacts on gas supply, the cost of gas service, reliability and/or safety.

- Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP): AGA's ongoing effort with Congress to obtain funding for the federal Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program resulted in final FY 2013 appropriations of $3.4 billion. This program is essential in reducing the financial burden of those on low and fixed incomes as they provide themselves with needed basic energy services.

- President Obama's Climate Action Plan outlined a key role for natural gas and called for strengthening our nation's position as the world leader in producing clean natural gas and continuing the progress achieved in reducing carbon emissions by using this abundant fuel.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Program Service AccomplishmentsOPERATIONS & ENGINEERING

The Operations and Engineering Section includes 14 technical committees whose work is overseen by a Managing Committee. These committees focus on helping natural gas utilities achieve operational excellence in the safe, reliable and efficient delivery of natural gas.

The fourteen technical committees are: 1) Corrosion Control Committee; 2) Distribution Construction and Maintenance Committee; 3) Distribution Measurement Committee; 4) Distribution & Transmission Engineering Committee; 5) Environmental Matters Committee; 6) Gas Control Committee; 7) Natural Gas Security Committee; 8) Plastic Materials Committee; 9) Safety and Occupational Health Committee; 10) Supplemental Gas Committee; 11) Transmission Measurement Committee; 12) Transmission Pipeline Operations Committee; 13) Underground Storage Committee; and 14) Utility and Customer Field Services Committee.

The Operations and Engineering Section provides timely and relevant information to help member companies achieve operational excellence in the safe, reliable and efficient delivery and use of natural gas. The 2013 information exchanges included:

- Gas Utility Operator's Best Practices Program: AGA's Best Practices Program is an effort to identify procedures of superior performing gas industry companies and innovative work practices that can be used to improve participants' operations. It focuses on improving the safety and efficiency of gas distribution system construction, maintenance, operation and inspection.

- Operations Safety: Conducted the Safety Leadership Summit and other topical safety forums and published materials to identify and promote leading safety practices. Ten member companies are participating in AGA's Peer-to-Peer Safety Review pilot program for member company peer-to-peer safety reviews. These reviews focus on safety management systems, risk management and worker procedures. An AGA report outlined that the dedicated efforts of natural gas utilities to modernize infrastructure and manage risk led to an 86 percent decline in previous pipeline incidents on cast iron mains and helped ensure the integrity and safety of natural gas delivery systems, while reducing cast iron main by nearly half.

- The SOS Program: Allows individual members to send operational and technical related inquiries to their peers in member companies to better understand how others are addressing a particular issue/challenge. In 2013, this program facilitated 75 member company requests for operations-related information on such issues as emergency response, fire resistant rain gear, corporate safety goals, work management systems and welder qualification procedures.

- Operational Excellence: Conducted conferences, workshops, webcasts and roundtables on such topics as damage prevention, workplace violence, disaster planning and cybersecurity.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c - Program Service AccomplishmentsPOLICY, PLANNING & REGULATORY AFFAIRS.

AGA's Policy, Planning and Regulatory Affairs Section work in 2013 involved: the dissemination of information and analysis of the economic and physical condition of the natural gas industry; the analysis of state and federal regulatory regimes under which natural gas utilities are directly regulated; and securing recognition of the benefits of natural gas in federal energy, environmental and emissions policies.

The Section's Policy Analysis Group provided a vast array of data about all aspects of the natural gas industry and collected and compiled it in ready-reference form. Among the 2013 publications were: GAS FACTS; Preliminary Changes in Annual Natural Gas Reserves and Winter Heating Season Supply Portfolio Building.

AGA also undertook a wide range of analyses on environmental, financial, gas supply, gas demand, consumer cost, capital requirements, resource efficiency and other issues facing the gas industry. These analyses assisted the general public, members and other decision-makers in resolving the country's current energy problems and in establishing public policies that will be in the nation's best interest.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Descriptionmeetings and conferences.GENERAL COUNSEL PROGRAMS.

The Office of General Counsel assists member company attorneys in more effectively performing their duties, thereby helping those companies operate more efficiently. For example, AGA offers litigation alerts, legal forums and workshops, antitrust compliance programs, assistance to members in potentially precedent setting litigation, as well as, analyses and legal summaries. In addition, AGA annually updates and publishes the AGA FERC Manual which is a regulatory compliance guide directed at natural gas utility members.

INDUSTRY FINANCE & ADMINISTRATIVE PROGRAMS.

The Financial and Administrative group develops and implements programs in the following areas: accounting, customer service, human resources, risk management and information technology. These programs help member companies operate more efficiently. For example, in the customer service area, AGA's Data Source is the utility industry's premier tool for benchmarking customer service programs. Subjects covered include: call centers, energy assistance programs, billing and meter reading. A powerful online search engine enables members to retrieve data efficiently, thereby increasing employee productivity. AGA sponsors accounting workshops and training programs on cutting edge issues facing our member companies.

called by the membership to address any issues or questions.

The Association's governing bodies are active in a number of ways. The Association members elect a Board of Directors (BOD) from the the membership. Committees related to financial oversight, compensation and governance are established by the BOD.

These include the Executive Committee, Board Finance Committee, Board Audit

Committee (CEOs, some of who have a CPA designation and public accounting backgrounds) and Board Compensation Committee (BOD Chair, Vice Chair, 2nd Vice Chair, and other BOD members usually with leadership roles in the Association). The Audit Committee Chair is a member of the Board of Directors and provides regular reports of the Audit Committee to the Board of Directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

The Association's internal process for review of tax forms is extensive. For the Form 990, the Association's Controller (also a CPA) and Assistant Controller draft the form with input from the staff review group (SRG), composed of appropriate staff officers and accountants. A draft 990 is then provided to the outside auditing firm, the CEO, the Chief Financial Officer (CFO), the General Counsel and others. The Controller then has responsibility to circulate the comments to the SRG and incorporate appropriate corrections into the 990. The final draft is then prepared for SRG approval and provided to the Audit Committee. The CFO reviews the 990 with the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee Chairman reports on this review to the Board of Directors. The 990 is provided to the Board of Directors before it is filed.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

The organization has new employees review and sign a statement of compliance with the conflict of interest policy at the time of hiring. All employees and Board members have a continuing duty to report any actual or potential conflict of interest in accordance with the policy and annually sign a statement of compliance. New Board Members (NBM) attend a Board orientation session with the organization's Chairman, President, Chief Financial Officer, General Counsel and others where the Association's policies are reviewed. NBMs make a declaration of any potential conflict of interest. All Board members have a continuing duty to report any actual or potential conflict. The potential conflicts for Board members, officers, employees and others are reviewed by the Association's CEO, General Counsel, CFO and Human Resources Director and a schedule is prepared and furnished to the independent auditors and made available to the AGA Audit Committee. More detail is provided in the policy.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO, Top Management

The CEO's compensation is first discussed by the Board Compensation Committee with an independent consulting firm specializing in non-profit organizations to determine the Board Compensation Committee's recommendation to the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board then presents the recommendations and reasons for the CEO compensation adjustment, if any, for a vote by the full Board. Contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberations, decisions and Board of Directors action is maintained in the Human Resources files and the minutes of the Compensation Committee and Board of Director's.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Review & Approval Process - Officers & Key Employees

The Association uses a multifaceted approach to determining compensation for it's CEO, officers and employees. This includes establishing written position descriptions, salary ranges for positions, setting position goals, providing written performance evaluations, measurement of performance, quarterly, semi-annual or annual goal review, and contemporaneous substantiations of the process. The Association's current compensation policy dated November 30, 2011 describes the process in more detail. The Association also retains an independent compensation consulting firm to advise the Board Compensation Committee and officers. Compensation adjustments usually are recommended by supervisors and approved by managers, directors and/or officers. Adjustments must also be approved by the Human Resources Director. Officer's individual salary adjustments are recommended to the Board Compensation Committee by the CEO, must be approved by the Board Compensation committee after review, and reported to the Board of Directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 - Other Organization Documents Publicly Available

The organization makes the information available in a number of ways. The organization's governing documents, officers, board members and members are available on AGA's website (www.agaweb.org) under "About AGA." The conflict of interest policy is also available under "About AGA."

Financial Statements are provided to the entire Board and others on a quarterly basis. Annual audited financial statements are provided to the entire membership. Financial, governance and other information can also be obtained from the Association electronically by request under "Contact Us" on the website or by mail.
